

Senior Safety:

This special session focuses on those retired and now in their "Golden Years."

While this demographic isn't at a big risk of being a victim of a violent crime--they are the number one focus of scams--in person, by phone, email and over the Internet.

It's time to get straight about this unfortunately common occurrence and be empowered --again-- with your life.